MEMORIES

THE SENIOR CLASS OF THE
MARPLE-NEWTOWN
HIGH SCHOOL

As these "Memories" were being created, a new stage of growth was fulfilled at M-N. The rising of the new high school against the skyline discouraged crowded conditions and encouraged expanding activities.

During our senior year, we have cherished many memories, and now we would like to share them with you. In the time that elapsed from September to June, our class could be found in the midst of Christmas card sales, pep rallies, dances, and sports. Our Yearbook is a reflection of this busy and fun-filled year of the Class of '58.

Way Back When . . .

It was a long way to Philadelphia in those days, and the people of Marple-Newtown Townships never thought of themselves as suburban. This was farm country; rural is more the word for it. It was on April 27, 1914, four months before World War I started, that Marple-Newtown High School was established. The sturdy red-brick building stood on five acres of land given to the townships by their community-minded friend, Doctor John G. Thomas. This was to be an agricultural and vocational school, which is just what the townships needed. There were thirty-one pupils that year, and they were taught by three teachers.

Nine years after the founding of the school, a young University of Pennsylvania graduate took the job of Supervising Principal. His name was Jay W. Worrall. Because of the limited faculty at the time, Mr. Worrall had to step in and teach Latin to the academic students. Mr. Harry R. Harvey, who arrived in 1927 to teach the business courses, recalls how the principal would remind his class over and over again, "In Latin A is pronounced AH."

As the years went by, the school moved the emphasis from agriculture to academic and business preparation. In 1927, the year everyone was dancing the Charleston, a gymnasium annex was added to the original building. The pupils of Marple-Newtown were always busy improving their school life with fresh new activities. In 1932 they mimeographed a school newspaper. This was the first "Mar-News". The next year, with a faculty of eight behind them, the students put the mimeograph machine to work again and produced the first senior yearbook. "Memories" was born the next year when the class of 1934 printed a twenty-four page yearbook.

Miss Helen Yeingst came to M-N in September 1934 and has since done everything in this school from supervising the Hi-Q team to directing the senior play. It was the year the dirigible "Von Hindenberg" exploded in New Jersey that a youthful Edgar Raffensberger came to M-N to teach.

History continued to be made all over the world in those fateful years, and Marple-Newtown gravely looked on. 1941 -- THE UNITED STATES WAS AT WAR! M-N stood behind the nation and never neglected her duty. The old Honor Roll of war veterans that hung in the first floor hall of the old building told the grim story of those M-N graduates who had fought and died for their country.

The years that followed were years of progress. A new emphasis was put on education. As the population of the two townships increased, the need for school growth also increased. In September of 1950 Mr. Herbert E. Rathey arrived at Marple-Newtown and became principal of the joint Junior and Senior High School.

No longer can the original eight school rooms of 1914 be seen. They were destroyed on April 9, 1956 -- the day of the school fire. With the fire came the end of an era; the old was gone. Now we look forward to the new.

We Quote

"For the first time in many years, the familiar picture and comments of Jay W. Worrall, the former Supervising Principal, will be missing. His passing in the late summer of 1957, closed a dedicated career in the field of education which spanned nearly a half century, thirty-three years of which were spent at Marple-Newtown. His interest in and efforts for the young people of our communities can best be remembered by what he called the dignity of labor. His opinion was that every vocation is important, and that there are no menial tasks.

To the members of this graduating class, I extend my best wishes for your health, happiness, and success. No matter what your choice of vocation, give to it the utmost effort and dignity, and you will be richly rewarded; you will experience personal satisfaction worth far more than any monetary reward."

HERBERT E. RATHEY, B.S., M.S.
Acting Supervising Principal

We Quote

"The many activities of high school are culminated in the graduation exercises. The purpose of the graduation program is that of symbolizing a mastery of a challenge and the passing of an important milestone in the lives of our young people. As the passing of each milestone on any journey reveals a new horizon, so graduation unveils new horizons of opportunity and of challenge.

Graduation from high school, therefore, is not only an end but also a beginning; it is the beginning of new opportunity for greater individual growth, and, also, the beginning of greater responsibility and greater challenge.

The world of man is dynamic; it is on the move for better or for worse. In man's expanding mastery over his physical world lies his greatest opportunity to make his world a better place in which to live. It is in man's mastery of himself wherein lies the challenge."

Parents

The School Board has been a thoughtful and diligent guide for us at M.N. The members of the board have planned extensively in order to meet the demands of an expanding community and school. The new senior high raised its pillars to the sky this year in recognition of this progressive planning.

Teamwork and understanding are the goals of this influential organization of our parents and teachers. Through our successful P.T.A. a stronger bond between home and school has been created. This year the P.T.A. held many informative panel discussions with other civic groups, conducted a program honoring Miss Helen E. Yeinget, expressed their desire for a scholarship, and investigated M.N.'s present report card system.

Busy – this is the pace of the newly formed Boosters' Club that is always serving Marple-Newtown. The main objective is to steadily increase the athletic interest surrounding our school. Steadily? Within this year alone, all of the students have witnessed the tremendous surge of supporters at our games and other sports events.

We at Marple-Newtown appreciate the work being accomplished by these groups and hope that their example will be only the beginning for continued progress in the future.

"Busy Boosting"

We dedicate . . .

Last June the spark of Jay W. Worrall's career was extinguished just when it was glowing the brightest. Because of illness which led to his death in August, Mr. Worrall was forced to relinquish the direction of our growing school system. He never lived to see the dedication of the Jay W. Worrall Elementary School, the rebuilding of our Junior High School, or the completion of the Marple-Newtown Senior High School.

A graduate of Media High School and an alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania, from which he later obtained his Master's Degree, Mr. Worrall came to the Marple and Newtown School Districts in the fall of 1923.

In addition to teaching students at various high schools, he taught adult veterans of World War I at the Spring Garden Institute. Teacher and administrator both, it was said that he preferred the former because of the closer contact with the students.

Following his great love for education, loyalty to his community ranked a close second. The role he played in local affairs made him an outstanding figure in the eyes of the community as well as the students of the school districts. Mr. Worrall has been, for many years, the educational "home" of the students of Marple-Newtown. Many graduates have spoken of his great influence on their lives.

It is with these thoughts in mind and with our deepest regard that we, the Senior Class, dedicate to Mr. Jay W. Worrall, our "Memories" of 1958.

".....We shall never lose our affection for that which has passed on, but, at the same time, let us rejoice at what the future promises, and keep in mind that this new building, rising out of the ashes of the old, promises larger and better educational opportunities for the young people of Marple and Newtown Townships....."

Almost Paradise

Commencement Honor Guard

Many new friendships were promoted by the seniors at their annual tea this year. The new cafeteria, decorated in the class colors of turquoise and white, was the meeting place for many of our mothers. Eve Niederdrenk, Judy Nelson, and Helen Schatkowski provided music for the assembled guests. The mothers of the class officers, Mrs. Wigglesworth, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Hoerner, and Mrs. Stewart, poured.

“Getting To Know You”

“Memories” Makers

With forty-three persons working in departments from Art to Zsubscriptions, the 1958 “Memories” finally hit the presses on schedule and arrived beautifully bound just as a fun-filled year came to a halt. The staff, creators and salesmen, of this year-book is the largest in Marple-Newtown’s history.

Above are the writers, editors, and copy-readers. From left to right are R. Diemer, V. Hoffmann, B. Pfrommer, A. Lillmars, S. Hayre, P. Rainey, S. Price, and E. Wathen.

Below is the huge, but efficient, business department. From left to right are W. Klumpp, L. Rice, B. Young, J. Niemeyer, B. Peoples, R. Stevens, C. Dulaney, R. Scarborough, D. Fuller, R. Steiner, J. Mau, S. Lynch, T. Austin, P. Pinker, P. Braun, A. Ross and H. Schatkowski. Seated are J. Hoerner, S. Ibbs, J. Nolte, J. Nelson, S. McCloy, J. Fink, R. McCloy, D. Duncan, D. Trowbridge, and J. Fazio.

Committees

Tea Toters, J. Hoerner, R. Hynes, S. Lynch, P. Pinker, L. Rice, J. Gordon, S. Price.

Hard-working Promsters, P. Braun, D. Trowbridge, D. Duncan, C. Polidoro, S. Smith, J. Burgain, T. Austin.

"Deck the Halls," J. Compton, J. Wheatman, V. Hoffmann, L. King, Mr. J. George, V. Cicero, L. Krain, D. Fuller.

The senior committees are behind-the-scenes committees. No fanfare heralds them; no drum roll announces their meetings; they are the doers behind the many projects of the Senior class.

"And the Home Ec girls will make hors d'oeuvres."

"One Currier and Ives, two Little Zoos!"

"The Throne should be turquoise and white!"

These are the tossed-about phrases and ideas, which were shaped by these committees into a Senior Tea, an "Affair to Remember," and a lucrative Christmas Card Drive.

National Honor Society of Secondary Schools

Membership Card

issued to MARPLE-NEWTOWN

by _____ Principal

Paul E. Elicker

Secretary National Honor Society

Established in 1921 and introduced to Marple-Newtown in 1944, the National Honor Society encourages and upholds scholastic achievement during high school and later life. Membership in the Society is one of honor and privilege, this year given to nine Juniors and thirteen Seniors who were chosen on the basis of their high scholastic rank, leadership in school and activities, character, and service to their school. Those elected into the Society are urged to promote scholastic achievement in others and to stimulate the desire for learning. Sincere congratulations are extended to the new members for continued success in high school and their further endeavors in the field of education.

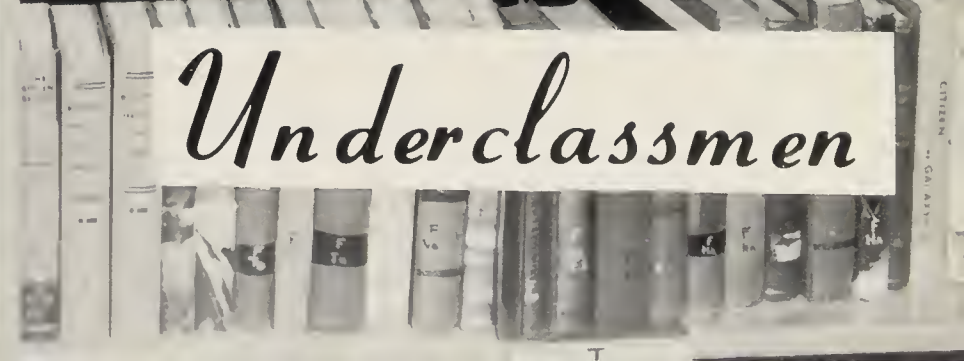

Holdover members, bottom row: D. Duncan, E. Niederdrenk, R. Suny, J. Nelson, R. Diemer, S. Hayre, D. Fuller, B. Stewart, J. Scott. New members, second row: H. Schatkowski, J. Hoerner, V. Hoffman, A. Lillmars, S. Price, R. Hoover, S. Smith, P. Braun, G. Daub, V. Engelking. Third row: R. Scarborough, S. Ibbs, C. Webster, J. Paarz, F. Fink, D. Biborosch, G. Matters, S. Shawhan, M. Wheaton, J. Nussle, C. Newton, L. Suny.

Unsung Heroes

Around the World

If Jules Verne, the famous French science-fictionist, could have been in our Junior High auditorium last winter, he would have been pleasantly surprised and pleased as he watched "Around the World In -Eighty Days" performed under the direction of Harold Miller. The Senior Thespians traveled the twenty-five thousands miles around the globe without ever leaving the M-N stage. Starring in the leading roles were Ronald Suny as the impertuable Phileas Fogg; Leif Skoogfors as Passepartout, Fogg's faithful servant; and Joanne Fazio as Auoda, the beautiful Indian maharanee.

The plot concerns a wager made by the wealthy Mr. Fogg in 1872 that he can travel around the world in eighty days.

His travels are very adventurous as he fights in the jungles of India and beats off an Indian attack in the American Rockies.

However, all's well that ends well. Fogg not only wins the wager, but also gains a wife by marrying Auoda.

Stewart, L. Shaefer, J. Rudisill.

Service Above Self

Aside from its many social activities, the main purpose of Tri-Hi-Y is to represent the Christian way of life at school. Every year they try to bring a little sunshine into the lives of the children at The Chester Day Nursery, when they bring gifts and have a party with them on Christmas.

This year's projects included the sponsorship of the Mother-Daughter Banquet; the biggest Sadie Hawkins Dance ever; and the sale of mums and Easter candy.

The officers of the Tri-Hi-Y are President, Judy Nelson; Vice-President, Diane Fraser; Recording Secretary, Pat Rainey; Corresponding Secretary, Jeanene Bricker; Sergeant-at-arms, Linda Suny; Chaplain, Dale DePova; and advisor, Mrs. Clarice Jardine.

Above and Beyond the Call

The Hi-Y is primarily a Service Club, a Christian organization made up of young men of our high school. Other than sponsoring numerous school projects, the club's rewards and results are hard to come by, and perhaps it may seem to others as if its efforts are netting them few profits. However, the personal satisfaction obtained from uplifting the moral and spiritual values of today's youth is a compensation far greater than any material reward.

Our Hi-Y group, under the guidance of Mr. George Kocher, meets at least once a week, usually on Thursday. The nineteen members that compose the Hi-Y are under the capable direction of President John Scott and Vice-President Eugene Wathen.

At present our chapter is engaged in a State Hi-Y Contest, involving the writing of a legislation, and if this legislation is judged the winner, it will become a permanent bill of the state.

The Nicest Sound Around

Anyone who is leaving the school building at the close of the first session is likely to hear a melodious sound coming from the vicinity of the music room.

A further investigation would reveal about forty students, under the direction of Mr. Paul Oberholtzer, earnestly practicing their music.

The Marple-Newtown Chorus has indeed done some fine things this year. They have not only performed well at Parent-Teachers Association Meetings and United Nations Day Assembly, but also sent a fine representation to Delaware County Chorus at Swarthmore, and to the Southeastern District Chorus, a very important event.

This year's chorus has greatly increased in quality as well as quantity, and we know it will do just as well in the popularity department now and in the years to come.

With the establishment of Marple-Newtown's new orchestra, the music department has become complete.

The orchestra, under the qualified leadership of Mr. Theodore Morgan, climbed steadily up the ladder of success during its first year of participation in school events. The newly formed group was a standout at the Spring Concert.

This fast-growing musical organization has already shown great ability, while securing much popularity in the process.

A highlight of the year was the announcement that Helen Schatkowski, M-N's violin virtuoso, had been named Concert Mistress of the All-State Orchestra.

As far as the gridiron is concerned, this year was one of the most profitable for Marple-Newtown. Coming way over the fifty per cent mark, the team made an excellent showing both on offense and defense in every game they played, even the ones they lost.

Under the very capable direction of Lou Bonder, Dave Williams, and Tom Ennis, we feel that the era of football for Marple-Newtown is just being born. Next year should be even greater. Congratulations, Tigers!

Shoot For The Basket. . .

Spurred on by plans of playing in the new Senior High gymnasium, the M-N basketball Tigers leaped into practices with potentials of keeping their seasonal records up to par with their new home. Coaches Williams and Watson, thought of by Marple-Newtownites as the number one coaches in the U.S., can boast one of the best seasons in the history of Marple-Newtown. The boys, led by captain Buddy Young, can look back on a Grade A season, which was backed by large crowds and spirited cheerleaders.

Captain Judy Nelson, a third year varsity player, led the Tigerettes into their "58" season with invigorating words of encouragement from Coaches Jardine and Egner. Although the girls were not able to claim an exceptional seasonal record, they were able to credit their Alma-Mater with high and outstanding merits of clean play, and good sportsmanship.

The deciding basket

F. R.: S. Kromboltz, G. McCloy, R. Hynes, D. McEvam, D. Murphy. S. R.: B. McCarthy, J. Mackey, O. Schaffer, K. Carpenter, B. Knorr, J. Jackson, Coach R. Pittmann, P. Can, G. Koenig, K. Elliott, L. Huss, B. Ewing.

Shoot It Up, Put It In,

F. R.: B. Schutz, S. Trotter, E. McGillidely, N. Britton, K. Durelle, G. Dickinson, S. Membrino, W. Cluver. S. R.: Coach W. Richute, A. Mirra, L. Enyle, S. Stickle, G. Bysers, J. Schmidt, B. Johnson, B. Cook, M. Slotkin, P. LeDonne, R. Rinchardt.

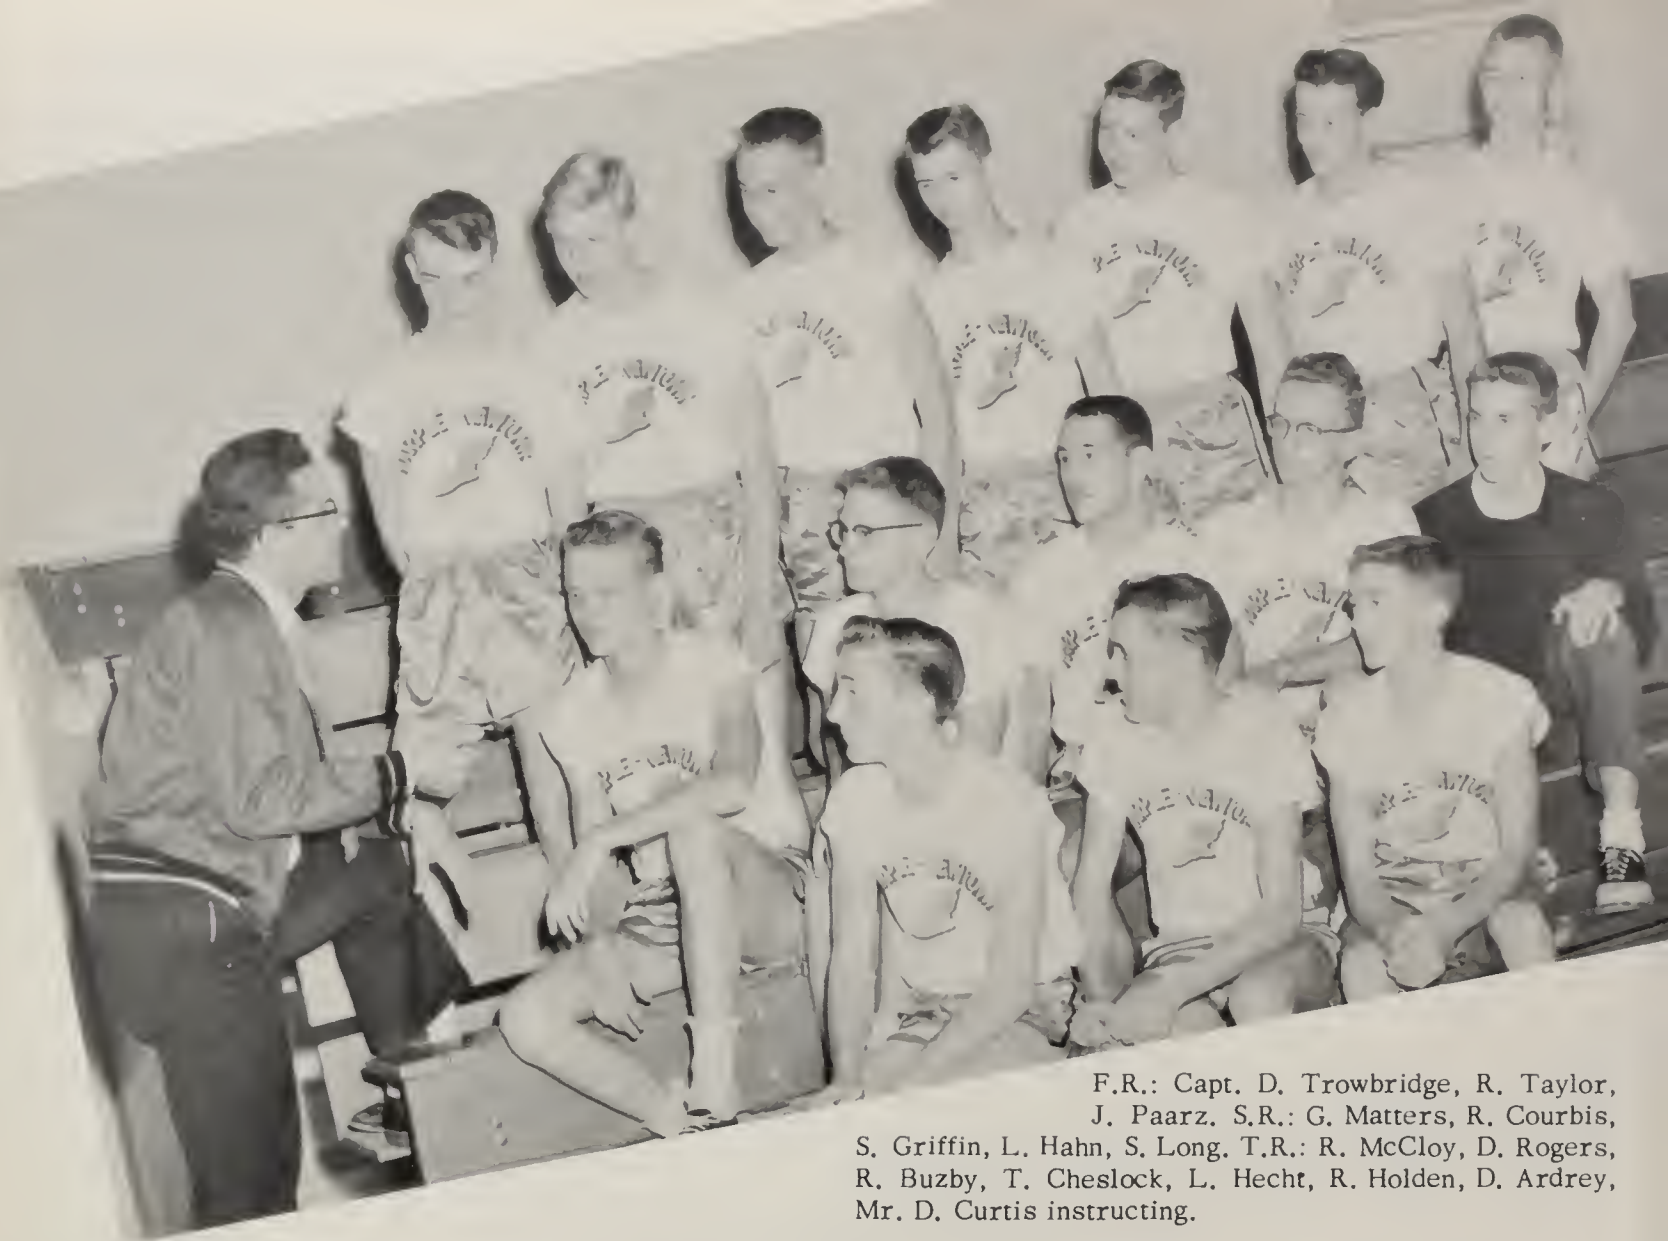

F.R.: P. Burns, J. Null, B. Naye, Captain J. Gustafson, N. Weller, G. Jakubowski, D. Hill. S.R.: S. Peck, J. Courbis, K. Crisman, C. Duncan, G. Monjar, Coach G. Strobel, A. McClure, Coach F. Helmle, S. Fisher, V. Hamilton, B. DeCindis, A. Pacienza, J. Lewis

Junior High Wins Again

F.R.: S. Clayton, L. Walton, J. Mills, P. Monjar, S. Boone, B. Yearsley, M. Peterson. S.R.: Coach G. Strobel, S. Wathen, C. Nelson, A. Engelking, J. Baker, S. Ivers, L. Dulaney, S. Nielson, R. Nunn, N. Lewis, Coach F. Helmle. T.R.: J. Hamilton, B. Iwan, C. Reichert

The Men in the Gray Flannel Suits

One of the biggest surprises this year was our cross-country team, The Marple Newtown Harriers. Even with the inconvenience of building and the lack of facilities, the competent coaching of Mr. Dave Curtis has brought the team more than its share of wins and recognition. However, Coach Curtis has often said that the boys' willingness to win was the component of their victories.

The team placed second in two section league meets, and doing the same in Suburban II League, they earned a crack at the state championship.

FINAL RESULTS
WON - 5
LOST - 3

F.R.: D. Fuller, T. Wilson, J. Fink, R. Hoover, J. Mau, R. Swerdlow, D. Smith, R. Steiner. S.R.: N. Howard, R. Gascoigne, J. Iwan, B. Barton, L. Hecht, R. Reinhardt, P. Braun, F. Hormann.

Ten-Pin Kings

"A strike and a spare in the next frame," is lingo well known by one of the latest teams to join our sports world - The Marple-Newtown Bowlers. The team, in its second year of existence and competition, can be seen practicing Monday and Wednesday afternoons at the Gehris Alleys in Upper Darby.

With the help of Mr. George Kocher as coach and Captain Larry Krain, the team has received enough prominence to earn its Varsity and Jayvee letters for having participated in a major sport.

Captain Larry Krain looks hopefully towards having a bowling trophy.

Spring Sports

Round Up

The Hall Patrolers, captained by Sam Young, had a happily uneventful four months in the new school. The Monitors include: F.R.: H. Lyman, P. Braun, E. Martino, J. Mariano, A. Pease. S.R.: T. Wilson, S. Young, T. Tipton, W. Sellers, W. Klumpp. T.R.: R. Hynes, W. Spiller, J. Gordon, R. Stevens, D. Duncan, G. Wigglesworth, R. Hoover (not in picture)

The Future Nurses Club grab bandages and iodine to practice their trade. Here in a peaceful moment they pose for Flash Broder: F.R.: R. Vick, L. Bucci, M. Sunner, J. Cheney, G. Simpson, S.R.: G. Vick, A. Green, J. Grimm, B. Fitsch, B. Baron, D. Moore, K. Johnson, B. Steiner, M. Davy, M. Dappen, Nurse J. Manino

The Senior High Future Homemakers of America with two bake sales under their belt pose for their picture. F.R.: M. Davies, J. Rudisill, A. Evangelista, C. Iffland, M. Wheaton, A. Ortlip, L. Shaffner, G. Vick, T. Saitis, S.R.: G. Gardner, S. Alexander, A. McClure, J. Cheney, J. Nussle, P. Pinker, E. Stephenson, L. Worner, B. Rowe, L. Griffith, Mrs. L. Bruderick, B. Fitch, M. Schroeder, S. Lynch, C. Dorey, K. Pappas, M. Cook, C. Alexander, J. Mackey.

Flight

The annual dedication of education began,
at the beginning of September for the benefit of man,
The first big affair after study lamps dimmed, was Sadie Hawkins Day when the gals chased the men.

Fearless Fred Fearnot and Dangerous Dan, led the yearbook play to a riotous stand,
An intense melodrama with plenty of plot,
called "Love A La Mode With a Cherry On Top."

Twas the night of Thanksgiving,
a day of great joy,
for the football players had found a new toy.
The plaything was one of recent fame,
the winning football from the Springfield game.

For a job well done or a part well played,
for a course well run or a speech well said,
the athletes, the scholars, the dramatists, and all,
were given their laurels for being "on the ball."

Through '58

Entertainment you look for, entertainment you'll find,
unless, of course, you're tone deaf and blind.
Some good entertainment, agreed by all,
was the band's performance at Convention Hall.

Supporting education is easy verbally,
but to reach in your pocket is another story.
Our communities, however, came through for their parts, in giving a new high school to our knowledge hungry hearts.

There's an art to playing,
though we fail to admit it.
There was a kindling of competing,
though we don't know who lit it.
One good example to prove what was said,
was the foul shooting contest, which Dave Rode led.

The object of an art is describing a thing,
a time, a place, or an innocent fling.
"Girl Crazy," the play by the Junior class,
described all these with an excellent cast.

And Last But Not Least . . .

Joseph D. George, Commercial, Mrs. Marie Nester, Science, and Mrs. Clarice Jardine, French, have a professional get-together.

Band librarians A. Lillmars and E. Shaefer sort out the music. B. Shea, head librarian, is not shown in this picture.

George Earl, Adam Yeagley and James Shields not only see to it that the schools are kept clean, but also make sure that the clocks are in working order.

Mr. George Simon, Mrs. Katherine Perkins, Mrs. Evelyn Parris, and Mr. Charles Russell, new additions to the Junior High School.

Meditations

Kindergarten, First Grade --- finally Junior High
By persistent effort ----- you all got by Increased, became the studies followed by fears
As comes to every student --- those last 4 years.

From Freshmen thru to Senior --- School days became endeared
As every problem vanished --- In days you once had feared.
For packed in them are memories -- that cannot be erased.
Which you will always cherish --- as time goes on apace.

And now the true realities ----- of life before you loom
And parents too, are thinking --- when you'll be bride and groom
Events like this are natural --- sure as setting sun
But I would have you listen ----- each and every one.

Take time to stop and ponder ----- about your soul's estate
For if you don't, it may be ----- your decision be too late.
For all earth's joys are temporal -- and never will suffice
Like KNOWING your sins are forgiven --- by faith in Jesus Christ.
